

2015-2016 Hendrickson Method Institute Training Application
Essentials (84 hours*), Advanced (84 hours*), and Modules (28 hours each)
Berkeley, CA

Training Dates for 2015-2016

2015: September 19-22

2016: January 23-26, May 14-17

General Information:

Essentials and Advanced Hendrickson Method Training each consist of 3, 4-day modules. Three modules are held per academic year, with the full course spanning a twenty-four month period. Students of all levels attend class together. Successful completion of the Essentials course is a prerequisite for enrollment in the Advanced training. All classes are held at Rudramandir Yoga Center, located at 830 Bancroft Way in Berkeley, California and use the text Massage and Manual Therapy for Orthopedic Conditions (LWW, 2009), by Dr. Thomas Hendrickson. The instructional DVD, Massage and Manual Therapy with Dr. Tom Hendrickson, is strongly recommended as an accompaniment to the textbook.

Students seeking self-paced Hendrickson Method certification may sign-up for individual modules. Each module is a 4-day class. Module students attend class with Essentials and Advanced students. Students who are taking classes for continuing education purposes only (versus Hendrickson Method certification) are not required to take quizzes. The first module, Manual Therapy for the Spine, is required prior to taking additional modules. Students must complete Essentials level modules before signing up for the corresponding Advanced level modules.

Dr. Tom Hendrickson will teach all Hendrickson Method Institute classes during the 2015-2016 academic year.

How to Apply:

Students who wish to enroll must complete and return page 2 of this application, along with payment for one or more modules. We will provide you a Course Catalog that explains all policies and requirements upon receipt of your application and payment. You may also download the Course Catalog from our website for review prior to applying.

Please note that new students must complete the first module, Manual Therapy for the Spine, prior to attending any other Hendrickson Method module.
